Earnie Larsen was a nationally known author and lecturer. A pioneer in the field of recovery from addictive behaviors and the originator of the process known as Stage II Recovery, Earnie authored numerous curricula, DVD's, audio CDs and books with Hazelden and other publishers, including his 2010 Hazelden book, Now That You're Sober: Week by Week Guidance from Your Recovery Coach, written with his sister, Carol Hegarty. With degrees from Loyola University and the University of Minnesota, Earnie had been a counselor for over 40 years. Larsen passed away in January 2011.

Just what I was looking for. Love the new cover too. Anything that Earnie Larsen has written I relate to right away.Even his last book was so loving and full of acceptance. These days seems like we don’t get to read or hear about men’s experience with their personal struggles and how they arrived at a solution for themselves. His books give me hope, solutions and a ways to deepen my relationship with God of my understanding.

By far my favorite daily meditation book, I feel that it was written just for me but I realize I struggle just like so many. It is written for all of us. Wonderful daily wisdom that I apply to my life each day. This books has taught me a new, better way to live each day and that is a victory!

I have actually had this book for over 15 years and just recently bought the Kindle version. It is filled with daily inspirational readings for everyday life situations. I have often called it a life saver. The readings bring things into perspective, whatever your state of mind or problem might be. You can do the daily readings in chronological order or search the index for a specific topic. Thanks to the Larsen siblings and the publisher for making this little book a reality so many years ago. I’m so very grateful.

I have been reading this book daily for the past two years (at the least). It is very inspiring and motivating. That book I orderd, again, was a gift for a friend. I love it so much that it’s a grat gift. By now I must have purchessed at least five.
