Chirstopher is a professional horticulturist who trained at the New York Botanical Garden. His column "20-Minute Gardener" appears monthly in House & Garden.

Extremely well writen for anyone who wants to start with Annuals. It starts with a brief history of annuals, how to use them in the garden, planting techniques and a vast amount of photo's to see how the authors guide you through the use of many annuals.

Use it on my class and was able to help get good grades.
