Michael Ross is the Editor of Breakaway, Focus on the Family’s magazine for teen guys. Communicating with teens and families is his passion. His most memorable trip was a safari through Zimbabwe on a motorcycle, then by boat down the Zambezi River. Each summer, he and the Summit Adventure staff take teen guys on 10-backpacking excursions near Yosemite National Park.Michael and his wife Tiffany live in Colorado Springs with their young son and two cats.

This book is helping my son so much; he is now opening up by initiating conversation about his struggles and about what he has read in this book. Also, it has caused him to re-commit and confirm his dedication to purity to God and to us as his parents.

We've been giving this book as a gift to our older teen boys in our youth group...the topics are applicable to them, & the topics draw their interest.
