Yva Momatiuk and John Eastcott

Last year my husband & I had the good fortune to travel to Newfoundland...but alas it was only for six days.....not enough time. I was and still am smitten by the place and the people. I've been looking for good reads about Newfoundland in addition to the "Shipping News". I came across this delightful book. It keeps taking me back to a place I love. The photographs are beautiful and the Newfie stories are touching, funny, poignant and so heartfelt. Thanks to Yva and John for this loving project. This is a book I'll not be passing along too soon.

Love this book on Newfoundland. Not a .ot on this place.

Beautiful pictures.

I was disappointed with this book. I've read quit a bit about Newfoundland and was expecting lots of spectacular pictures. It was probably my mistake as much as anything - I just didn't read the description well enough.

The book is a visual and written story of Newfoundland and Labrador. It captured the culture in the 1980s

Wonderful photos

Excellent stories about people form Nfld.

This book clearly shows the beauty and heartbreak of Newfoundland. It gives a great sense of history and human nature.
