Synopsis

So....if you could declutter paper piles right now without the complicated decision-making or a long attention span, would you?Let me take a guess at what your current paper sorting process looks like...You pick up a piece of paper off the pile.You look at it, you get frustrated and then you put that darn thing back down on the pile and walk away overwhelmed. You think to yourself, Ã¢â ¬Å“IÃ¢â ¬â„¢ve got so many other priorities that I could be dealing with right now rather than this silly, confusing piece of paper.Ã¢â ¬Â•But then, every time you pass that pile (or piles) of paper your stomach turns. The sight of the clutter is driving you nuts. What if thereÃ¢â ¬â„¢s something important in that document mountain? What if there isnÃ¢â ¬â„¢t and the entire thing can be recycled?ItÃ¢â ¬â„¢s just paper, and youÃ¢â ¬â„¢re a high functioning human being. For heavenÃ¢â ¬â„¢s sake, you (insert one of your awesome accomplishments here)! How is it getting the best of you? No, you wonÃ¢â ¬â„¢t stand for this intrusion any longer. You pick up a piece of paperÃ¢â ¬Â¦ugh!Sound familiar?Well, IÃ¢â ¬â„¢m here to help you break that brick wall of a procrastination cycle and teach you how to do it over and over again, so that paper will be the one begging for mercy instead of you.

Customer Reviews

So happy I purchased this spot-on "how to" book. I'm successfully wrangling my over-growth of paperwork. Great tips, on how to corral a herd of out-control-scattered paper piles and organize them easily. Thank you so much.

Wow! Who would have thought that you could make paper organizing fun?! Nealey has accomplished this and so much more. There are a ton of "main" tips for wrangling paper and pushing through procrastination throughout this quick read and there are also so many hidden gems that she includes that are helpful far beyond organizing paper piles. All of this infused with Nealey's contagious enthusiasm gives the reader not only a boost of motivation but the resources to take concrete action.

Finally A quick read to help you declutter for the last time! Most of us are very busy and Nealey recognizes that as her book is written in a way that is simple to follow and allows for quick results. Take advantage of this fun and encouraging book!!

Overwhelmed by paper piles? Use these tips for get them gone! Simple, fast, easy tips to get you started and to the finish line. Nealey writes a fun book with encouraging words to get you through your paper organizing project.

Super fun tips! I've read several books on organizing my life and this book definitely broke my challenges with organizing paper files into practical useful tips.

Touches on the basics for organizing paper and gives a motivating message to start today and to not get overwhelmed!

"Working for myself, growing my business, and still ensuring I live my life is no easy feat, and I don't care who you are... Procrastination is your enemy. I'm a huge fan of Nealey's work, and she's outdone herself with 50 Simple Ways To Declutter Paper Piles, which not only helps bring clarity into your day-to-day, but the tools you need to stay on top, be more productive, and make sure you fulfil your potential."

Good ideas that I can understand and implement each day. Having folder for each financial account and explanation of scheduling with reminders and writing on to do list also helps me. I had too much paperwork in action file and did not do some things. Good tips help anybody I think if do it.
