Customer Reviews

When Sarah was 14, her family home burned. Although she and her siblings got out safely, her parents did not. As the oldest girl, Sarah took on the maternal roll for her siblings, while her older brother, Tom, became the breadwinner.Twelve years later, the young family is still struggling. Farming has not been profitable and the family is in a lot of debt. Although they managed to rebuild a small home, they are in danger of losing everything.The middle sister, Harriet, had married but was too soon widowed, leaving her with an infant. After she returns to her family, there are now six mouths to feed.Tom has purchased a new metal plow to make his work easier. But after a freak accident with the plow, he has an injured leg and Sarah, who tried to help him, has an injured arm.The youngest sister, Carrie, has been corresponding with a widower who needs a wife to help raise his two young children. He has sent her a first class train ticket to Helena, Montana. But three days before she is supposed to leave, Sarah finds the ticket and goes in her place.Will John Bowman accept her in Carrie's place? Will she be able to send the bride's bonus to her family to save the family home? Will her sister, Carrie, ever forgive her?Filled with action, bank robbers, kidnappers, soiled doves, town gossips, and scoundrels, "Mail Order Bride: A Banker's Wife" will keep you spellbound.

Have you ever felt an instant attachment to someone? I did that with Sarah. I had to take care of my younger siblings too, I did everything I could to be sure they had what was needed even going without myself and being severely injured so that they weren't, my three brothers and I were in a very wicked foster home and I had to do what I could to protect them.Sarah suffered an injury helping her brother who hurt his leg on the plow, she also protected her youngest sister from having the blade hit her in the face, this is how her arm was hurt. She is actually protecting Carrie by becoming the mail order bride in her place. Her unselfish and unconditional love should be praised.Look at all the excitement Sarah goes through when she arrives in her new town and state, so many things happen to her and her new family. Will John and his children learn to accept her and love her? Will she learn to love them? What will she do about the lie she told of being her sister Carrie? What happens when bank robbers enter the bank? Oh so many questions! The best way to find out is to get and read this fantastic story.I very much recommend this book to all who love excitement, intrigue, suspense and romance.

Mail Order Bride: A Banker’s Wife by Leah Laurens is part mystery, suspense, romance, family and a western historical. It deals with Sarah Ackerman and her family and their troubles that have led to the family farm being in trouble. Sarah is the oldest daughter and has a hurt arm that does not have much use . She takes tickets and goes in her sister’s place to be a mail-order bride. The issues that make things interesting include the groom’s two children, a band robbery, a partner that is greed and the truth. Feelings grow. It is well written. Leah Laurens keeps your guessing about what will happen next. It is part of a series but does well as a stand alone. I look forward to reading her next book and hopefully the rest of the Ackermans’ stories.I received this as a ARC for a honest review.

Mail Order Bride: A Banker’s Wife (Mail Order Montana) (A Western Romance Book) by Leah Laurens is a delightful Western Romance, which has much to offer readers. Part of a series, but it can be read as a stand alone. It is set in Montana.This is the story of Sarah Ackerman who arrives in Montana as a Mail Order Bride and has a useless scarred arm where she meets John Bowman, who is a widower, has a bit of a temper, and two young children. You see Sarah arrives as her younger sister, Carrie, to marry John.There are a few spots that felt a bit slow to me but picked nicely to bring a well paced tale filled with bank robbers, kidnappers, town gossips, a couple of busy bodies, and soiled doves.The mystery, romance, and suspense will keep readers turning pages as their captivated by the strong willed characters and a plot that flows seamlesly and effortlessly.A joy to read! An amazing Western Romance. A must read and a keeper.Rating: 4.5Heat rating: SweetReviewed by: AprilR
