Customer Reviews

I bought the book to help students memorize states & capitals for weekly tests. We studied approximately 10 states a week - the book is organized into regions and next year I will be following the book's regions to make things easier. Just a heads up about Idaho and Alaska. The Idaho picture is "boys eating hoes" which caused a few giggles and the Alaska picture has a reference to Vodka which also caused murmurs because they knew it was inappropriate for school. My students loved the book and there was a big difference in test scores before using the book and after using the book.

Great Book. Kids love it. Great learning tool!

Great help for remembering the State Capitals.I will never forget the capital of Tennessee again thanks to a tent at sea surrounded by sharks that gnash veal around it.

Helpful way to engage your brain to remember facts. Kids will enjoy it, or at least find it better than repeating facts over and over again. I recommend their other book "Oh Willard Fillmore" for a way for kids to remember the presidents in order. I highly recommend it!

6 year old boy loves it... though it's definitely not 20 minutes for him. Maybe for 8+ it COULD work. I memorized them in less than 30 minutes and it truly works!

I love these books, I used them when I was in 3rd grade. I'm happy to see they are still in publication for my second grader. I do warn anyone who is easily offended, these books may offend some of you. They aren't bad, but I know how some of y'all cry about bad jokes.

like it

Granddaughter loves this book and it helps her a lot
