Synopsis

Five marks confirm our identity as genuine and fruitful followers of Christ: 1. A Methodist Loves God 2. A Methodist Rejoices in God 3. A Methodist Gives Thanks 4. A Methodist Prays Constantly 5. A Methodist Loves Others This brief book, suitable for sharing with others, provides a meditation on each of these characteristics. Prayerfully apply them to your journey with Jesus. If you are part of the worldwide Methodist or Wesleyan family, these five marks will grant a greater knowledge and appreciation for why and how you follow Jesus. If you are located in another part of the body of Christ, you can emerge with a solid foundation to keep your spiritual house standing strong. Christians marked by these five habits, when taken together have character. Each chapter ends with questions for reflection or discussion. Ã Â

Steve also served as Dean of the Chapel and Director of the Pathways Initiative at The Upper Room in Nashville. He lives in Winter Springs, Florida.

The writing for such a small book is deep and theological. I did find The Character of a Methodist to be a better read and good prerequisite to the Five Marks. Need a leader with good Bible knowledge to lead a book study.

Great pathway to discipleship. Five great steps to follow.

An interesting read about John Wesley's Methodism ideals. However, it can also be read as the five marks of a Christian.

Short and to the point. Good teaching book.

John Wesley's five marks describe our basic Christian call to discipleship that followers of Christ wear proudly rather than the latest fashion.

I loved how simply Harper summarized general Christian faith practices by way of John Wesley. This book is accessible both to the expert theologian and someone who simply wonders what a Christian ought to look like.

Great truths couched in simple quotable phrases. Gives wonderful insights into the marks of the Christian. I've been truly blessed.

Great foundations for all Christians to follow.
