Daphna Flegal is a diaconal minister in The United Methodist Church. She is a certified laboratory leader in the area of young children and has worked with preschool children for more than 20 years. Daphna is currently the lead editor for children's curriculum. She lives in Nashville, Tennessee.

A bit too easy for the level with which I'm working, but also easily adapted. Good for background in church practices.

The best book and I believe Kids would enjoy it also.

Excellent resource for Methodist children and adults who don't know their history.

I thought it would be more like a story, but it is broken down into lesson studies. The studies look very good, with lots of ideas. There are crafts and music

Not quite what we expected. Probably will not be used as much as we hoped Wonderful. Our pastor and several others have read it. Good church history.
