Customer Reviews

My daughter loved this book and so do I as I enjoy reading it to her and the price is cheaper than buying it retail from a store. It is high quality hard cover with beautifully printed pictures. The story teaches little girls that it is not necessary to be lavish with things and parties. At the same time, you don't have to be so plain and simple with your choices either. There is a balance and compromise somewhere in between so you can enjoy things and parties in moderation which is a spiritual lesson we ought to learn in life. I have a 4 year old daughter and this book is a great tool to teach her making "balanced" value and judgement in life.

This is a cute book. I gave it to my niece with a Talking Sofia the First and Friends doll. She loved both of them, as Sofia the First seems to be very popular with young girls these days. She received a lot of Sofia the First gifts, but no two alike (thank goodness)! I recommend this book, because it was a big hit with my niece. The story is cute too.

Both my grandddaughters (one is 4 1/2 and the other is 2 1/2) love this book and keep asking me to read it. It has a powerful message - bigger and fancier is not always better. I highly recommend this book.

A Christmas Present so not used, but looked fine and didn't have any complaints.

Standard little golden book. 4 year old disney jr fan enjoys the story.

The story is entertaining and well-liked and asked to read and re-read!

Went perfectly with the Alex Toys Butterfly Garden Tea Set. I read this with my grandchildren when presenting them with the Tea Set. We took turns reading. My 6 and 7 year old grandchildren were able to read it. Book teaches good values.

This is such a cute book. My four year old just loves Princess Sofia and I love that all of Sofia's adventures teach her (and my daughter) real life lessons. This book is no different. We watch as Sofia plan her tea party and as things go array Sofia changes things to plan her party in her own way. This book has very bright animation just like the Little Golden Books normally do. The cover and end are strong and sturdy. All in all we loved the story and the book.
