For more than 20 years, John Green has created popular Dover coloring books. He specializes in realistic drawings of people, animals, and places, and his recent titles range from Life in Old Japan to Dogs to Paint or Color.

The art work in this coloring book is amazing; each cat actually has an expression on its face with its ears and tail positioned correctly for that expression. A must have coloring and reference book for wild cat lovers of all ages. 38 detailed illustrations of wild cats from all over the world, both well known and not so well known, and at the bottom of each illustration a well written paragraph regarding that specific cat.This is my 10 year old Granddaughters favorite coloring book; she loves cats both domestic and wild. Her favorite is the Tiger. I added a picture she colored using Crayola water colored pencils (sold on)1. 38 Illustrations are Printed on medium weight, bright white paper, outlined in black2. Shadows are black in the picture3. Perfect for crayons or colored pencils4. Most of the illustrations are of cats sitting or standing in pose like positions5. 14 of the illustrations are shown colored on the front and back cover, inside and outside6. The drawings are on both sides of the page and the paper quality is poor. It won’t feel like you are coloring on sandpaper but close to it. Some illustrations have no detail at all which is good if you want to practice how to color fur. Some other illustrations will have some details. I think this is a great book for a boy/man because of the absence of flowers, hearts, and girlish details. I bought it for my son and he likes it. I’m giving it three stars because the illustrations are double-sided and the paper is not that good. Other than that, the book is great and the price it’s even better.

Love the pictures but are 2 sided and the paper does not have very much tooth to do shading and blending. overall satisfied .

...for all ages. My 6 year old niece is in her "tiger" stage and just loved this book. Educational along with the art/coloring element. Very nice publication. I have purchased many of the Dover books and never been disappointed.

I’m 52 years old and I still love to color. Cats have always been my favorite animal. I have a house cat, but I also love wild cats. This book is perfect fit me. Can’t wait to get to get started.

Perfect for my 17 year old who loves big cats and still likes to color occasionally. She loved it, has found a few discrepencies in the details, but overall very pleased. It was one item on her Christmas list that I didn’t think I’d be able to find, but, of course, pulls through!

absolutely beautiful realistic pictures. can color as detailed as you want or just do simple coloring

Love those cats!
