Ã Â If you want to harvest fresh, delicious vegetables from your own backyard garden, this is the book for you. The Beginner's Guide to Vegetable Gardening covers everything you need to know about starting and maintaining a healthy, productive vegetable garden, whether you have a small urban lot or a large country yard.Samantha Johnson and Daniel Johnson, a brother-sister book-writing team from northern Wisconsin, are 4-H alumni who have written several books on raising livestock and other aspects of rural living. Here they condense their extensive gardening experience and full-color photography into one easy-to-use guidebook.Ã Â Ã Â Ã Â Ã Â Ã Â This book was created as a practical, illustrated resource for FFA members ages twelve and up, but it is useful for any beginning gardener. From picking a site and amending the soil to watering and harvesting, this book lays out simple steps to gardening success. In addition to detailed growing information on common vegetables, The Beginner’s Guide to Vegetable Gardening includes a bonus section on popular herbs and fruits for the home garden.Ã Â The Johnsons describe useful tips and techniques that will help a novice gardener bring in a bumper crop. And they donÃ¢â ¬â„¢t leave you hanging with the harvest: they include advice for preserving, storing, and exhibiting your vegetables, and even offer a few recipes for making treats from your fall bounty.Ã Â Buy this guide and learn how to: Ã Â Choose the right garden siteStart from seeds or seedlingsPick the right toolsPrepare the soil properlyMake compostKeep weeds under controlExtend the growing seasonRotate your cropsSave seedsExhibit your harvest at the county fairMake dinner from your gardenÃ Â About the authors:Samantha Johnson and Daniel Johnson have collaborated on several rural living guidebooks, including The Field Guide to Horses (2009) and How to Raise Rabbits (2009). Both are 4-H alumni and live on the family farm, Fox Hill Farm, in far northern Wisconsin. Samantha is also a certified horse show judge and raises purebred Welsh Mountain ponies and Dutch, Holland Lop, and Netherland Dwarf rabbits. Daniel Johnson is a professional photographer whose work can be seen at www.foxhillphoto.com.Ã Â

Gift for my Grandson who wants to learn about vegetable gardens. He loves it!

I know this is to help kids grow a garden but it really is easy to understand for a first time gardener like me

This book was very helpful with identification and planting in small areas. It was an easy to follow read, perfect for a beginner gardner.

I know this book will be very useful. Thank you.
