Butch Krieger has worked as a professional artist for 42 years, including several years as a courtroom illustrator, with credits that include CBS, CNN, the AP, and USA Today. Mr. Krieger specializes in portrait and figure art, as well as trompe l'oeil still lifes. In addition to his first book, Watercolor Basics: People (North Light Books) he has written over 100 articles for various art magazines. Mr. Krieger resides in Washington State.Ã Â Since 2005, Live Model Books has been photographing the human form for study by artists, illustrators, or anyone who needs high-quality figure reference photos. Through their Art Models projects and books, they seek to help people further their understanding of the human form. Live Model Books is based out of NH.

I was highly anticipating this book and it finally came! My first impression was it was well put together and of high quality. After sitting down and looking it over I felt inspired and impressed in equal parts. I highly recommend this to anyone looking to do art-model pose photographs in figure drawing. The artist Butch Krieger comes across as knowledgable, talented and skillful. He walks us through with step by step using simple poses and then progresses to more advanced instructions. He gives really great advice in his Epilogue (back of the book) and I just kept going back and reading it over and over. Worth every penny!

Great book

Clear and comprehensive figure drawing book; lots of pictures and detailed descriptions.

I have taken a workshop from Butch Krieger in the past and like his workshop this book doesn't disappoint. I found it to be a excellent approach to the figure.

Too wordy.

More than I expected. Will be a very useful reference book.

Really good, instructive book with great nude model photography. Don't need to find a life class anymore.
