Synopsis

This memorial volume is a special collection of sermons that American Unitarian Universalist ministers, professors and lay members preached about Transylvanian Unitarianism and its 16th century Edict of religious freedom and tolerance. Today Transylvania has become the land of pilgrimage for Americans, and Unitarian pulpits their forum to encourage and support this ethnically and religiously persecuted minority. The 44 sermons testify about deep transformative experiences through pilgrimage and firm commitments to save the Transylvanian Unitarian heritage. The Partner Church Program that covenants 200 congregations on each continent has been Ã¢â ¬Å“the largest and most heartening grassroots movement for American Unitarian Universalists.Ã¢â ¬Â•
