Customer Reviews

Jerry Pallotta is an award-winning author of children's alphabet books and imaginative fiction. His books combine interesting facts, detailed research, humor, and realistic illustrations that mesmerize children everywhere.

Bought this for an aeronautic-loving 5YO along with an -sold model plane, and though he loved both, this book had him RIVETED. His mom commented that she was sure this book would be read until it was tattered, sunburned and hanging together by scotch tape. Totally worth buying for any kids into planes!

Beautiful illustrations!

Perfect and arrived quickly!

I bought this book for my airplane-aficionado son when he was far too young to appreciate all of the advanced details about the jets. No problem - it’s a great book to go through, looking at the pictures, and reading just what each letter stands for, starting with "A is for Aerocomet". It was the best airplane book we’ve found for little kids. Now that he’s five, I’m reading the whole thing, every word. It stands up better than most to repeated rereadings.

I inititally bought this book for my 2 year old since he is learning his letters. But I just got this book in the mail, and am so excited about it, it will be great for the older kids as well. (They are all starting to get interested in fighter jets) It has a lot of different planes in it, and great information about each. It is very well written. I am getting on here now to order a second book for my nephews in first grade. Some of the planes it talks about: E-3, F-16, Harrier, KC-10, F-117, SR-71, F-4, F-22, B-2, F-14, U-2, X-13, and A-10. I have never written a review, that is how much I liked this book.

My two-year old grandson has made this one of his favorite books; he goes to it on his own quite often.The artwork is terrific and ultra-realistic. Very engaging.

grandkids loved this!

We love all of Pallotta’s books. I’m tempted to say the airplane ones are for older kids but I think it is just interest based. My not-quite 2 and 1/2 yr old learned his alphabet from these books. He loves all the books about fish.
