Synopsis

The Cat in the Hat makes another surprise appearance at Dick and Sally’s house--only this time he makes his entrance riding atop a brachiosaurus! Soon, he’s off, along with Dick and Sally, millions of years back in time to see how fossils were created. Then it’s on to a tour through the Cat’s own Super Dino Museum--a fabulous place where the correct pronunciation of a dinosaur’s name wins you a peek at the real living thing! Beginning readers will love exploring the prehistoric world of dinosaurs with the Cat in the Hat as their guide!

Kindergarten-Grade 3 Two titles that feature that favorite old cat, along with Thing One, Thing Two, and Sally and Dick. Both are told in rhythmic couplets. Di-no-saur introduces fossils using a museum as the setting. "With a club for a tail/and a back full of spikes,/this dino was strong /like an army tank. Yikes!" The dinosaurs’ names are given, as well as their physical traits. Fish uses a deep-sea sub to take readers through five undersea zones, illustrating the types of fish that would be found at each depth. Even after close examination, the pictures cannot be easily distinguished from those drawn by Dr. Seuss. A good choice for kids who still like their nonfiction told in story form and laced with humor. Sharon R. Pearce, Geronimo Public School, OK Copyright 1999 Reed

"There is a big gap between ’concept’ books written for preschoolers and nonfiction that requires fluent reading skills. The Cat in the Hat’s Learning Library books introduce beginning readers to important basic concepts about the natural world. They provide the critical foundations upon which complex facts and ideas can eventually be build. In addition, The Cat in the Hat’s Learning Library shows young readers that books can be entertaining and educational at the same time. This is a wonderful series!"-- Barbara Kiefer, Associate Professor, Reading and LiteratureTeachers College, Columbia University

LOVE this book! My 3 year old loves the rhyming of Dr Seuss and dinosaurs and this book combines both of those things! There’s some familiar dinosaurs mentioned and maybe a new one or two and we read it almost nightly.

Perfect for my 4 year old daughter who LOVES dinosaurs.Truth be told, we have other cat in the hat books (passed down to us) which she doesn’t prefer. Maybe she is too young to really get the rhyming? But she adores this one. The love of the subject matter makes all the difference. The authors were very clever and EDUCATIONAL! I highly recommend this for any of your chicken nuggets that like dino’s. ;-)

My five year old is fascinated by all things dinosaur and this book was no exception. I, personally, didn’t find it to be as fun, pun-filled or rhyme laced as what you would find from a true Dr. Seuss book and that’s to be expected. Though the book features the Cat in the Hat, it’s not written by our Dear Dr. Seuss, but Bonnie Worth. I don’t write this with any intent to slight Ms. Worth, but Dr. Seuss she is not.I can honestly say that reading this book as a bed time story didn’t bring me the joy that reading true blue Dr. Seuss does. Some of the words are a little more advanced than what I would expect to see from something in a learning library and some of the dinosaurs chosen were difficult even for me to pronounce. Granted, that made it a little fun as I learned about a couple dinosaurs that I didn’t know about at the same time as my little one.The book was well illustrated. Overall, not a terrible purchase.

Our youngest grandson is really into dinosaurs and trying to find a book that is not too young or too old is very hard,especially knowing there is an abudance of books about dinosaurs out there.I bought this book because of the rhyming and the colorful pictures and this book has become his FAVORITE book of all which I think is high praise coming from a 5 year old who has lots of books but this one really is a hit with him.This book has become such a favorite that his mother is now ordering more books like this not only because they are so entertaining, but because the kids are learning facts at the same time which to me is a huge plus.I highly recommend this book for any 5 year old interested in this subject!!

My almost 4 year old son Loves this book. We are learning and having fun with a Seuss book at the same time.

Purchased this for my granddaughter and she loves it. Can’t go wrong with the Cat in the Hat!

Great learning tool for both adults and children.

Absolutely nothing to complain about when it comes to a book with the cat in the hat!
