KiKi Canniff is a retired tax consultant who is also the author of the Annual Tax Mess Organizer System. She has helped train tax preparers for a national tax chain, managed a tax office, and taught hundreds of self-employed people how to keep audit-proof records.

I found this book really helpful. She makes it easy to set up a simple system that will eliminate most of the headaches at tax time. Her explanations are clear enough that anyone can understand them.

The author presents a no-nonsense method for sorting through receipts, expenses, tax calculations, etc. for the sole proprietor. More complex issues are referred to a "tax professional" by the author, but even so, a person who has a partnership or other more complex business entity could still benefit from organizing things before they visit the tax guy.

I like the fact that the tax forms are referenced. It definitely makes the information understandable. Thank you very much.

The kind of tax help I have needed for years. Simplifies tax season to the point a child could do it.

Even though this book is short, it gives really good advice with how to organize your paperwork to prepare for taxes. I used there method and it really did only take about 45 min to get everything organized. Highly recommend it.

Thanks! Great info

Annual Tax Mess Organizer for Writers, Artists, Self-Publishers & Craftspeople is the perfect book for full-time, self-employed creatives. It meets us exactly where we are. It could have been entitled ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“Everything youÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ve always wanted to know about taxes but were too lazy to ask.ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â•It tells exactly what we need to know. For instance, the first rule is that all business income must be deposited in separate checking accounts used only for business. Yes, most of us know that. But the book goes on to say that the account can be in either your business or personal name; it doesnÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t matter. I didnÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t know that!You donÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t need to buy this book only at the beginning of the year. You can benefit from it mid-year or even after the year ends and youÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢re pulling together your ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“tax mess.ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â•I am not a tax professional and cannot evaluate the book from that perspective. However, as a full-time writer, I find it very helpful.

This book is a must if you write, publish or craft on your own. Filled with Tax Tips and great advice-Annual Tax Mess describes what you need to do and when. KiKi Canniff has a winner book here. I especially liked the examples which are so relevant and the examples of deductibles were valuable.
