Great books. Our 1 year old loves them.

My 1 y/o loves to listen to this fun versions of the ABCs.

Great

It’s a cute book that goes through the alphabet with different animals. There were a couple letters that I thought were ridiculous and didn’t make sense, but the rest are sweet, some are funny.The book is small enough for my toddler to hold and turn the pages. Durable for how rough she can be on her toys, too.It will be great for when she starts to learn the alphabet. It’s a nice way to start getting her familiar with their shapes and sounds.

Some of the words are hard for younger kids. Could’ve used easier words

You can never go wrong with Sarah Boyington books.

Do you love Sandra Boynton as much as I do? I think this woman has the greatest sense of humor. Her animals are wonderfully drawn, and her sayings are clever. I have a cup with a Sandra Boynton critter on it, and the words under the picture say "I love your fuzzy little heart." Now, don’t you have to love an artist with that kind of humor? AND I love my little mug, too.

This book is very cute. We have lots of Sandra Boynton books, and while this one is not my daughter’s (19 months) favorite, it still has a lot going for it. It’s a good buy, especially for the price.
