Wonderful

I have long loved the historical aspect of the White House going back to Mrs. Kennedy's tour of the White House after she redecorated it, so this was another aspect of that history that I enjoyed reading.

This is an excellent book. I ordered two as Christmas presents from two different sources. They both were sealed in plastic. When one was opened as a Christmas present it had an address label affixed inside and a penned name. Very disappointing as I had no indication of this when I ordered it. Embarrassing.

Perfect! Now I have one for each child. Husband received quite a number of presidential Christmas cards over the years. Those cards have been divided between my two children. I had one copy of this informative gem before finding this. Now the kids each have their own historical reference to those cards.

Referring to Wolf of Wall St. Disgusting minus 100 in personal rating. Why does America nominate this trash? Wish I could shout this from the Empire State roof top!!!

I've wanted to check this book out for a long time. The copy I received is in excellent condition and arrived quickly. It was much less expensive than buying the book new. I knew about more recent cares but I learned about the earlier notes and greetings from the President and his family.Ellen Kloth

I am doing a program on Christmas at the White House for the Daughters of the American Revolution and this is a good resource for the program. I am focusing on the FDR years in the Season's Greetings from the White House.

Very interesting background history and beautiful illustrations to accompany the text. Shows a personal side of our Chief Executives in the White House.
