Frank Greenagel has seen and examined more churches in the state than anyoneÃ¢â ¬â •over 1200 to date, and still at it. He earned a PhD from the University of Minnesota, and taught there as well as at the University of Colorado. He has written six books on the religious architecture of New Jersey, and created the award-winning website on the topic, www.njchurchscape.com. Greenagel has spent nine years researching, writing and photographing the religious architecture of the state, and expects to complete a volume on each of the 21 counties.
