Synopsis

When the New York Giants selected wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. with the team's first pick in the 2014 NFL draft, they knew they had chosen a special player. Odell quickly proved he was one of the best receivers in the league, darting around the field and making great catches. In a game against the Dallas Cowboys in November 2014, he snagged a one-handed touchdown that many fans consider to be the most amazing, athletic catch in NFL history. He was the runaway choice for the 2014 NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year award.

Great book for my eight-year-old who is an Odelle enthusiast and provided the perfect reference with lots of great details for his biography school presentation.

Great read. My 9 year old grandson loved it.

Great gift.

To get kids to enjoy reading

Great book for my 7 year old grandson

I bought it for a 12 year old boy who is an avid fan and he was delighted.

Book smaller than I thought it would be

The book was good but it was short and being a football wiz didn't teach me much. Also I can't give this a 5 star review because I hate the giants
