Customer Reviews

This is a short book (64 pages) to learn quickly and enjoyably. Pictures and text convey Mozart’s culture, describes instruments, opera houses and everyday life. The essentials of Mozart’s life, his family and benefactors are the core, but just as relevant are the insights into how the music was composed and performed and of course Mozart’s contributions.The serious music listener might want to take notes from the "Index of Mozart’s Works" (about a hundred works). This is not a discography but a running essay on Mozart’s works under the headings Opera, Sacred music, Vocal music, Symphonies, Orchestral music, Concertos and piano music, Chamber music and Music for woodwinds. This book was translated from the Italian.
