Synopsis

THE 'HOW-TO' BOOK TO 'VISIONS OF GLORY'! When doctors gave him 6 months to live, John Pontius (author of Visions of Glory) created a blog to leave his testimony with his children. However, thousands of followers of UnBlog My Soul were touched. Share in the journey as Pontius expresses his love and understanding of the gospel in a clear, beautiful way. This book compiles the most compelling blog entries and weaves the narrative of his journey to the veil.

Customer Reviews

A great and inspirational book. I cannot say how much I enjoyed it. I would recommend it to anyone who wants to see the thoughts of a God fearing and Gospel loving man as he works his way home to God --Visions of Glory led me to John Pontius' other books. This was the next one I read, and it was a real eye-opener. I couldn't believe how someone like me, growing up in the faith, could have been so blinded to the scriptures, and the promised blessings, all my life. I feel like reading this book marked a major turning point in my life, and I've recommended it to all my family and friends. It's a must-read. --This is a fantastic book! I have recommended it to many friends and I can hardly stop talking about it. It gave me a new perspective on the scriptures, how to gain the mysteries of Heaven and the gospel of Jesus Christ. It is masterfully written. --

This book was hard to put down as it is very inspirational and motivational. The best review I feel I can give for this book is this:"But behold, that which is of God inviteth and enticeth to do good continually; wherefore, every thing which inviteth and enticeth to do good, and to love God, and to serve him, is inspired of God."

I started out reading John Pontius' novels when I was new to the gospel. As I became ready for more, I found Following the Light, Zion,Visions of Glory, the Unblog, then Journey to the Veil. Each of these "journeys", for me were profound experiences of the heart and Spirit that are difficult to put into words. But John Pontius is a humble man with a rare gift of expressing powerful spiritual truths that open the heart and stretch the mind and spirit of the reader. Wherever you are in your own personal "Journey to the Veil" experiencing this book will raise you to a new level if you let it.I used the word experiencing because you can't just read any of his work...each is an experience that uplifts. Thank you, Brother Pontius for sharing your journey!

To all my loved one's, please read this book and then continue and read all the rest of the wonderful books John has written. I read John's first book many, many years ago. Since that time I have searched and attempted to own everything he has written. I have visited his blog. His many books hold place of honor on my shelves, right next to Nibleys and the General Authorities. It is difficult to believe this will be his last book, still it is one more than I expected. I hope he knows how grateful his many friends and readers are.

This isn't been an enjoyable book to read each day I read a small portion as it is broken down into small ideas called unblogs. Each unblog makes a good thought for the day and something to ponder.

I absolutely love this book! Very inspiring and thought provoking; leading to a bigger desire to hear His voice! My only issue is the printing of every single, even numbered page is of poor quality, which is distracting to the reader. It is very light and when I turn the page I cringe and struggle to read it. However, I love the book so much, I don't want to return it. Hopefully they will have better quality control in the future, especially since I just ordered 3 more copies as presents!

Wondrous book. 'Brother John' had a special way of boiling down the Gospel into clarity and simplicity and presenting it in a way that inspires to follow Christ.Thanks also to Terri Pontius who was inspired to compile this book and who did so in obvious admiration of her husband and love for us.

I love this book. Has amazing insight into life, I keep reading it over and over again. Has great stories!!

Anyone can find the good/bad in any novel. The reality is that as long as you stay true to you beliefs and find the good in others sharing their testimonies of a certain gospel you will be able to learn and grow from others experiences. Allow the Holy Spirit to testify to you whether it is true or not. Personally I feel he experienced all the things he says he has. Besides who am I to judge him. If it helps me move forward in my life than great! If not than I just move on in search for the next spiritually uplifting book out there! I am grateful to those who have shared with us their experiences. Thanx to the authors!
