* A useful reference for all in the hospitality industry --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

Patrice Farameh is a producer and writer based in Los Angeles and specializes in lifestyle segments for television and print media for Europe and the United States. She created and produced "Trendscout TV ", where hotel and restaurant trends in major European cities were featured.

This book is great because each review is short and sweet, with just some essential information including "what makes it cool" and has beautiful photographs of each hotel. I especially like this book because it doesn't only have super high end and expensive hotels. Not at all. It has hotels that are quirky and funky that we all can afford. Yurt, anyone?
