Synopsis

Each book focuses on 68 terrific ideas for family days, from museums and puppet theaters to skyscrapers and parks. Written by parents who live in the cities they cover, these books are smart about what kids like -- and about what parents need. All the details for planning are included: addresses, phone numbers, admission prices, and age-appropriateness. "Hey, Kids!" info boxes provide fun facts and interesting trivia about the destination, and "Kid-Friendly Eats" features recommend three or four places to grab a bite to eat nearby. Fun to read and easy to use, these handy little guides make it easy to plan an enjoyable, hassle-free day with children in the world's most popular cities. They're perfect idea books for every city parent and grandparent, and indispensable aids for families on vacation.

Customer Reviews

me mum bought this for me when i was a fetus and i guess im not stupid or dumb so i turned out alright I give it an A+ it made me not dumb love this-great gift for someone new to the area.

Good Book! Suggestions for entertaining kids of all ages and temperaments. Happy that the food options for kids at each place were listed, as well as prices, entry times, and age recommendations.The most important info was highlighted at page tops (great!).EXPERIENCE

MUSIC PROJECT was a hit for both our 8 yr old granddaughter and 11 year old, hyperactive grandson!This would be a great resource for parents & grandparents who were visiting Seattle for the first time with children.

Awesome book! Get to know Seattle and what to do there

A great little guide for a family getaway including important information like: addresses, phone numbers, cost and descriptions. The only drawback I saw was a misspelling of "Hiram Chittenden Locks," there is no "o" in Chittenden. Since he was an ancestor of mine I noticed that you didn't spell it correctly. Maybe that could be fixed with a re-edited version.
