I’m from Missouri so I wondered what this book could tell me that I already didn’t know! Guess what, IT DID! The book has led me to make a travel wish list to see some of the sights in Missouri that I didn’t know exixted. Seperated by regions, more have more attractions that others. The author was very details in the region that she was from, which turns out to be the area we live in. My friend and I keep this book handy (on the living room coffee table) to spend our unfilled weekends or to use as a suggestion guide when family or friends come in from out of town. The book reads well and isn’t too dry to read! I recommend the book!

i got this book because we were heading to branson for a week long camping trip. we travelled with two eight year olds that were going to need to get out and move so i used this book to guide us across missouri and stopped a fun unique places that perked their curiousity. it really had some fun things and great suggestions - places i never would have found just tracing a driving path. great purchase!!
