Customer Reviews

Found the guide to be rather negative - almost wondered if I really wanted to go. Bought it because it was the newest one out, but would not buy any more "Rough Guides". Also found the pages went from dark print to very light print, making it hard to read. Otherwise was inclusive of all of the places I wanted to check out.

After traveling though thailand realized the the book didnt help much in getting around. it wasnt much of a guide instead more general info, which didnt help much in planning. More info and options of getting from one place to another wouldve been helpful.. Ended up using travel advisor which was free and up to date.

got this as good deal

Lots of information, for sure, however not as practical for our tastes as some other publications

"rough guide" books are my absolute favorite before visiting a new country. Love love love

Great book that helped me tremendously in getting around this beautiful country.

Excellent guide, lots of current info. My only gripe is that it’s big & heavy. Not only to travel with to/from/during, but to carry around the months prior to travel to read. I swear the people who publish the books don’t even use the books. Maybe I’m being unreasonable? An average trade paperback is 8oz, this is almost 2 lbs according to . I left it in Thailand so I wouldn’t have to haul it back. Rough Guide ought to break Thailand up into several smaller areas & let us buy the smaller booklets, whichever ones are pertinent to our travel.

Perfect guide for travel
