Synopsis

June Summers worked for her pretty Aunt’s casting company in Los Angeles. She never even gave one seconds thought to joining the line of broken hearted pretty women who wanted to be actresses. Pretty women were a dime a dozen in Los Angeles and she knew that dreams died first in the City of Angles. June was a sexy single woman whose beauty let her live fast and free. She had wealthy sugar daddy Myron Boliter who was happy to have her in one of his high rise units on the Sunset Strip. His two or three nights a month with her fit them both just fine. When opportunity knocked on the lovely brunettes door things quickly got wild. He naked ambition was a match for any man. When her Aunt sent her to see entertainment mogul Gordon Baxter, the daytime programmer of soap operas and game shows soon had June Summers playing dirty sexy games. He wanted her to take the part of an ambitious model on the long running Model Behavior show about an advertising agency. Everybody wanted a piece of June and she had a lot to give when she was motivated and in character. She had always been a method actress. She knew they wanted parts of her or all of her, or as much as they could get. When her naked ambition kicked in June’s life exploded into a real life sexual drama that matched any soap opera. She was living the dream and all she could do was hold on and let go of herself at the same time.
