Synopsis

Experience the majestic natural beauty of the Northern Mountains, the gentility of the classic South, and the charm of the Colonial Coast's fishing villages with the help of this book. Far more than plantations and peanuts, dynamic Georgia has a multitude of museums, nature centers, wineries, famous golf courses, hunting preserves, and more.

Jane Ockershausen has written ten travel guides to the Mid-Atlantic region and Eastern seaboard states, including One-Day Trip books on VA, MD, NC, SC, GA, PA, and Washington DC. She is on the board of directors of the Society of American Travel Writers and was the organization's president in 1999.

I've had this book since I moved to Georgia, and I couldn't get along without it. The only reason I didn't give five stars is that it's just not new. Some things change. But this book certainly steers you right, shows possibilities, suggests some good places not to miss.

Even given the age of this book, it is a great way to start planning a day trip because of the simple regional maps that show destinations that are near to one another. So many places, like state parks, do not alter much with time, so (with the help of the internet) I have not been disappointed by out-dated info.
