Customer Reviews

Love the story. It was a great read and the moral was not typical. Would read it again. Great read

I’m sorry, but that had to be one of the worst books I’ve ever read. No substance. The problem is once I start a book, I have to finish it....it was painful.

Good characters, interesting story line with slightly different plot line. Does there always have to be a darned conniving ex who plays the B? It doesn’t help that the heroine’s self esteem is so pitifully low that she falls for ex’s story hook, line, and sinker! Amazing how easy all the chips fall into place where the in- laws are concerned! A little too convenient in some cases how things always seem to turn our right. Hero has good ideas about life, humility, etc, but on the other hand has led a life of lower moral standards which follow him into present causing issues with his new wife! A good read tho!

Great story, never a dull moment with all of its twist and turn action packed drama. I enjoyed reading about the African culture infused in the story.

This book was ok . Not as good as I thought it should be. Ending was good. Hope the next one is better

An ok relaxing fast read. Rather predictable but main character development didn't ring true to me. An overweight woman with self esteem, body image & trust issues who is totally free sexually. Felt sexual descriptions somewhat gratuitous.

i enjoyed the book very much

This book is great. To be honest, I was somewhat skeptical about buying even for 99 cents, I am glad i did and I totally enjoyed every chapter. It is an old storyline but with a new twist. Really great to read a book that allows a glimpse of other cultures, in this case, African-American, African and West Indian (Caribbean). The premise was not farfetched as it is a known fact that green card marriages took place frequently years ago and may still be going on. I loved the ending and loved both the main characters. I liked the fact the book touched on real issues such as family relations, friendship, Tamara's weight and the dynamics of light skin/dark skin that can come up in the black race. Well done SKB Jewel.
