Like others in the series, this volume contains arrangements of both traditional hymns and more contemporary worship songs... most all tastefully arranged for intermediate level or advanced intermediate level, in a wide variety of styles... harmonies are often spiced with light dissonances, but in a way that brings a fresh interpretation to the melodies. I used some of the pieces immediately, and many others I have planned for our worship services in the coming weeks, for preludes and offertories (most of the arrangements under the "Postlude" heading can also be used as Preludes or even Offertories, espcially if the hymn/song fits in with the scripture, theme, or sermon topic). I highly recommend the entire collection of 4 books, which is what I purchased. There's some wonderful, useable music in these books, in my opinion!

Great book for church services. The music is easy to play but doesn't sound like beginner music.

I love it.

I really want to love this book - great selection of songs. Unfortunately it's just a bit too simple for my tastes, but overall it is much easier to add to pieces that are too easy than to take away from pieces that are too hard so I'm OK with that.

I consider the first two books in this series essential for the amateur church pianist and rate them five stars. I just saw there is a fourth book available in this series and will be buying it tonight. I only rated this one as four stars just because I don't use it as often, and when I do play during the seasonal times, I have other pieces I prefer to the songs in this book. However, the arrangements live up to the rest of the series in that they are interesting, but not too complicated for the volunteer musician. Here are the songs by occassion:Advent: Breath of Heaven (Mary's Song) * Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus * ImmanuelChristmas/Epiphany: Do You Hear What I Hear * Mary, Did You Know? * We Three Kings of Orient ArePalm Sunday: All Glory, Laud and Honor * Hosanna, Loud Hosanna * In the Name of the LordMaundy Thursday/Good Friday: Above All * O Sacred Head, Now Wounded * The Wonderful CrossEaster: Christ the Lord is Risen Today * Mighty to Save * Thine is the GloryPentecost: Consuming Fire * Holy Spirit Rain Down * Spirit of the Living GodPatriotic: America, the Beautiful * Battle Hymn of the Republic * God of Our FathersThanksgiving: Come, Ye Thankful People, Come * Now Thank We All Our God * Worthy is the Lamb
