Oh my gosh. Worth every penny! My daughter (4) LOVES reading the stories together. They are simplified and the author is great at using language that is appropriate for young kids but doesn't loose the meaning of the word. The little activities associated with each story are wonderful to reinforce the teaching but simple enough to do spur-of-the-moment.

Have thus to my daughter for her 6th birthday (as she had read through her beginners bible 10 + times) she loves it! And is always telling me about the things she read in it

This is such a great gift to little girls, whether it be your little sister, daughter, granddaughter, cousin, niece or even Goddaughter... this will open up their little eyes to Gods truth. No matter what our views are as adults, God speaks about the faith of the little children, let us build them up in truth and with love and this God's Little Princess Devotional Bible aides in doing just that, plus it is a fun and cute way to do it with the little princesses of our world.

I purchase this item for my 5 year old daughter thinking it was a Bible based on the title of the book. Was very disappointed to receive it and find out it is simply a devotional book, not a Bible at all. Now I have to reorder to get her an actual Bible.

Cute little story bible for girls. Not an actual bible, but introduces the topics and concepts to the beginning reader.

Good looking book. Great bible stories. Very colourful. My 4 year old daughter loves it. We actually thought it was a real bible with books and verses. We ll keep it and purchase a real bible.

was told this book was like new but for the price am still happy with it. My grand daughter will love it and not really care about of of the writing on the inside cover.

The only thing that I don't like is that is a little confusing where one devotion starts and ends.
