This book answered all of any possible questions I had. A couple of weeks ago we drove through Lancaster as we have done many times before. This time I found myself thinking about specific questions I had as I looked out the window of our car. I marveled at the horse drawn buggies and the bearded men inside dressed in their Sunday finery. I told my stepson right there and then that I was going to do some research so that I could answer not only my questions, but his as well. If you have an inquiring mind as I do, this is the book that will answer those questions!

This was a very honest and helpful book that answered a lot of questions I had about the Amish. Of course there is much information on the internet about the Amish people, but this answered a lot of FAQ's that are not usually found on websites about the Amish.

Really gives a true in site to the Amish.

I have had some exposure to Amish but this little book filled in some gaps in my knowledge. Easy Q&A format. I am an Agnostic seeking information on many religions hoping for an "Aha" moment. I was not overwhelmed with a desire to become Amish!

I have never read a non-fiction book by Mindy Starns Clark before. While it was interesting reading about the Amish. The book never grabbed me like her fiction does. Maybe it was the question format?

Nice addition to my collection of books about the Amishhttp://goo.gl/gbd9Ve

Informative and interesting, added to my understanding of the Amish life.

Very pleased!
