Sheila Walsh is a Women of FaithÃ Â® featured speaker and the author of the award-winning Gigi, GodÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Little Princess series, The Storm Inside, and The Shelter of GodÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Promises. Sheila lives in Frisco, Texas, with her husband, Barry, and son, Christian.Ã Â

It has some theology in the new testament section I don't agree with. That's why I gave it 4 stars. It would be better not to go there. The example is that it says repentance is required for salvation and says you need to repent to receive salvation. With their definition that is not correct. It equates repentance with asking for forgiveness. This theology is something that was added in Christian circles over time but when the bible was penned, the Greek word simply meant a change of mind. So, if you say that you must repent, change your mind of placing your faith in yourself or another God, for salvation that is correct - but to add asking for forgiveness is a common error and I'm very careful not to taint the gospel's message. Other than that one thing, this CD is great. When my child gets older we can get more into theology and will have to unteach this one principal. Actually, we just don't let her listen that that one cd (there are 4 cds). That being said, I love to hear her recite bible stories. The author has a very comforting voice and is constantly reiterating truths about God being the ultimate creator and loving His children.

Love it. Keep it on repeat some nights in my girls room and I feel like it helps them sleep more peaceful. She has a very calming voice and she's speaking the word of God to my children even while they sleep. ÃƒÂ Ã Å¸Ã ËœÃ Å I'm happy happy happy

Almost match for match to Goodnight Warrior,a few words have been changed to Princess which my little girl likes. Our six and half year old has been listening to the Sheila Walsh bedtime stories for over 3 years now. She goes to bed with them on every night and it has been a wonderful blessing to her.

My son and daughter both listen to these at bedtime after my daughter kept waking up afraid to sleep. These are comforting, and I love that they are hearing God's Word as they drift off to sleep.

Great for kinder to fifth grade to listen to as they go to bed - my daughter loves it

My daughter has listened to this for years and she is 9 now. She still likes it. It is so calm and soothing and the stories are well told.

My daughter used to wake up with nightmares, after buying these she sleeps through the night!

We play these every night. Even my mom listens to them at bedtime when she stays over. She says that the lady's voice is so pleasant that it helps her sleep. I would definitely recommend this product.
