MATT SEWELL is an avid ornithologist, regular contributorÃ Â to the Caught by the River website, and the author of severalÃ Â other illustrated bird books. His work has been exhibited inÃ Â London, Manchester, New York, Tokyo, and Paris.

IntroductionItÃ¢â ¬â„¢s simple: everybody loves owls! They are all things for all men, women and children. Owls are tough, wise, spooky, scary, majestic, austere, spiritual, easy to draw, inspirational, and cute.Ã Â In a work of wonder, every family of owl has evolved totemic skills for survival in habitats around the globeÃ¢â ¬â •the lush woodlands of Europe, mountainside glades of the Himalayas, savannahs of Africa, dust bowls of the Americas, and the equatorial tropical rainforests.Ã Â However we like to depict the owlÃ¢â ¬â •creepy and haunting, or majestic and beautifulÃ¢â ¬â •their singularity in the animal kingdom and their unflinching colonization of our Earth is simply breathtaking.Ã Â And that is why I love owls.

Beautiful book. The descriptions of the owls are filled with personality and beautiful illustrations. I'll be buying the other books like these, as well.

My grandson loves raptors. this was a nice intro to owls who are a very interesting bird.

Love the drawings! It reads like a scrapbook of someone who loves owls with cool tidbits of useful information. Nice touch!

Fun and informative

Quite a few owls (50) from around the world packed into this little book. The descriptions are brief, usually with an indication of locale. The drawings are accurate and quite good. The small size of this volume would allow you to carry it with you when searching for and spotting owls.

Took a look through before giving away as a gift to an owl lover/environmentalist. I don't recall how I stumbled upon this one, but it was a hit.

He saw this book at a friend's house, so he was thrilled to get one of his own.

Very informative, fun and cute illustrations. Definitely adding the other bird books to our collection in the future!
