New Mexico’s rich history and diverse geography provide the perfect backdrop for an unforgettable geothermal experience. From the low desert in the south to the pine-clad Rocky Mountains in the north, Touring New Mexico Hot Springs will show you the best hot-water spots in the state. You can soak in history surrounded by adobe ruins at the Montezuma Hot Springs, take a challenging hike to the remote Turkey Creek Hot Springs, indulge in a Japanese-style spa treatment at lavish Ten Thousand Waves, or explore the geologic wonders of Soda Dam. Inside you’ll find: detailed descriptions of each spring; easy-to-read maps and clear directions; historical information on the area; suggestions for the best times to visit. (6 x 9, 120 pages, b&w photos, illustrations, maps)

love it

New Mexico does not have very many hot springs. Some of the ones in this book are not even open to the public. Just search the internet if you want to find hot springs. The best in the state is Ojo Caliente.

I got this book for my hubby who loves the hot springs..He has enjoyed researching locations to go soak perfect
