Customer Reviews

Ted Edwards is one of the last great adventurers, as his experience shows in full detail. Armed with a love for life and what he hoped to be sufficient supplies, he set out across the Sahara, deepening his already-full respect for the desert and its inhabitants (whether they be scorpions, nomads, or camels). His is a fantastic story, which will bring any reader’s yearning for exploration to the surface! I recommend it to anyone who has a zest for truly living.
