Customer Reviews

Writing The Bestseller: Romantic And Commercial Fiction is a great read about writing a book.I enjoying reading it. Even though I'm not an author.I read a lot of romance novels and I was curious to how it was done and that's why I grabbed a copy.The funny thing is that I really wished that I was a writer when reading this book. It's so fun and light and easy to understand. I enjoying reading it. Even though I'm not an author it almost made me wish I was. It had me writing down goals and following along with the great ideas as I read it.I can highly recommend this one to another curious romance reader as I, or to a future author.

The romance emphasis of this book made it less than informative for me. Even more so, the oberall tips, advice and insights were things I'd seen in other books.

Extremely valuable advice! Has already helped me tremendously with my current WIP. It helped me see the weaknesses in it before I was too far in, and make adjustments to strengthen my storyline. I'd recommend this to anyone who is looking to write romantic fiction.

Great information for any writer trying to take their craft to the next level.

A lot of great information that can be used time and time again.

Wonderful resource for writing romantic and commercial fiction. Great advice from editors and bestselling authors. I would recommend this book to both new and seasoned authors.

Love this book. One of the best "how to's I've read so far.

I truly learned a lot about the writing process in this book. What I like is that you are receiving a lot of perspectives from authors who are NYTimes Best Sellers. Their advice is great!
