What Good Will Come

Synopsis

What Good Will Come is the tale of a young man named Pasha Dev, living in India with his much loved cat, Mustafa. During a rainstorm in the city of Delhi, where he is living, Mustafa goes missing, and Pasha ends up sleeping next to the window he has left open, hoping Mustafa will return. When he wakes up, Pasha is overcome with a cold. But he must still travel to the Bahai House of Worship to serve there as the keeper of peoples shoes. When people enter the sacred Temple, they remove their shoes and give them to Pasha to keep until they return. Pasha hands them a token to exchange for the shoes when they are ready to leave. But at some point during the day, Pasha is seized with a violent fit of sneezing, and when it is over, a pile of shoes greets him. How will he match the correct shoes to the correct owner? This story teaches children the value of prayer, faith in God, and faith in others during times of trial and uncertainty.
