Lisa Archer is the owner and creative director of Pickle Pie Designs, a line of more than 350 embroidery designs that are sold through the website www.PicklePieDesigns.com, and a collection of 30+ embroidery design collections that are sold in retail fabric and sewing stores. She writes a regular column in Creative Machine Embroidery magazine tiled "In the Hoop," and is also a Craftsy Class Instructor.

As a teacher, I find Lisa’s design steps with full color, step-by-step instructions to be a marvelous tool for beginner’s. They will gain confidence quickly and enjoy the pretty designs.

I have purchased many In the Hoop projects from PicklePie designs. They always turn out great. I knew I could not go wrong in purchasing this book. There are some great designs included with the book as well as very helpful step by step instructions complete with full color pictures. Lisa also gives direction as to hooping and proper stabilizing for excellent results. A section on applique and a very nice monogram are included as well. You will not regret this purchase.

Great book to have. I am brand new to machine embroidery and this is going to be a major help.

Yes, this is a great book for beginners to expert. I have been embroidering for years but am always looking for tips and help to improve. This is a good book to add to my library.

I learned more than expected from this book especially about in-the-hoop embroidery. Do the projects as they help with techniques.

Love this book! Excellent instructions and projects

Great purchase. Cute projects.

This is a fun book full of cute projects and helpful information for a novice to machine embroidery .
