Synopsis

Family dinner has always been important to me, but after my fourth child was born, I knew I needed help! I started experimenting with my Crock Pot, and it saved both my sanity and dinner. I reinvented slow cooker recipes to replace canned soups, mixes, and processed foods with simple, healthy, delicious ingredients. If, like me, you struggle to get dinner on the table, this book is for you. In it, I share simple techniques for getting the most out of your slow cooker. You'll learn how to thicken sauces and make gravy, use make ahead recipes like my Italian Meat Sauce, and prepare dishes so they're fresh and flavorful -- never watered down or bland. Full color photographs. Customer Reviews

Great recipes, though they are all for families, and it is just me, you can halve them. I have a smaller crock pot, too. And she has great tips on making batches of meat sauce and even for gravy. Recipes look delish, too!

This author definitely knows the ins and outs of using a crockpot just right. Many recipes are gluten free and almost all the ingredients are fresh and unprocessed. I'm definitely making many of these a staples for a our big family.

Great resource for recipes sure to please the whole family, beautifully shown photos of the food and easy to read format makes this a fantastic cookbook to keep at hand for any occasion!

It has pretty simplistic recipes but these are the types of recipes you will want to eat again and again. The simple ham and bean soup are a favorite and so is the beef bourguignon!!

I liked the easy recipes and variety of dishes! All use readily available ingredients and give variety to my meals.

I love cooking with my slow cooker, so I appreciate these outside of the box recipes created just for that. Easy, delicious, and totally yummy!

Good recipe ideas if you get bored with your slow cooker.
