Synopsis

If you have been driving through Illinois on I-55 and exclaimed, "There’s nothing out there but corn " you aren’t alone, but you couldn’t be more wrong. Learn why Steven Spielberg visited Waggoner, Illinois, and what fruit Abraham Lincoln used to christen the town named after him, as well as what route was frequented by flesh-eating birds and what antique mall was said to harbor a spaceship. When you travel in the company of LuAnn Cadden and Ted Cable, every mile marker between Chicago and St. Louis hides a story, and even grain silos become adventure destinations.

Customer Reviews

I assumed there would be photos of many of the places along the road. Very disappointed that there were very few.

This book helps make the ride on I55 more of an adventure I also found out more about Bloomington - Normal.

Many times throughout the years, I have traveled I-55 and never knew all the interesting facts this book covers. It is fun to drive along this road and see the sights detailed in the book "Traveling Through Illinois:"
