Customer Reviews

I’ve enjoyed the Chicken Soup books for years. And I enjoyed "Chicken Soup for the Soul: Twins and More" especially since I am now the grandmother of twins.The stories were good but rather one-faceted. I have read a LOT of the Chicken Soup books and this one fell rather short. I usually feel moved by quite a few of the stories in the books but in this one - not so much. It was okay just not exceptional likeÃ Â Chicken Soup for the Soul Love Stories: Stories of First Dates, Soul Mates, and Everlasting LoveÃ Â orÃ Â Chicken Soup for the Surviving Soul: 101 Healing Stories About Those Who Have Survived Cancer.Also, I would have liked a section on multiple births - above the triplet mark. Triplets is as high as this book goes.Don’t get me wrong - it’s worth reading. And like all the Chicken Soup books, a lot of the contributors have given contact information. I am going to give it to my daughter-in-love and hopefully she’ll be able to contact other mothers of twins and share their good (and bad) stories.

Good book, a nice read and so comforting to read of others in the same situation as me

Nice

Chicken Soup books do not disappoint

Good

I enjoyed every page of the book. I don’t know how the mothers do it all. My children were born 13 months apart. It brought back a lot of memories.

This is a good book for those who have twins. Raising twins is a special experiance and this deplicts that. I would recomend this book to anyone but special to those with twins.

I ordered this book for my sister who was going to have twins. She was put on bed rest for 3 weeks, so she was able to sit and read this before the two little ones arrived. She loved it! I would recommend this as a gift for anyone with twins or multiples. However, you may want to give it to her before the babies arrive...who knows when she would have time to read it after!!!
