This book was delivered promptly and it was in very good condition. I have found it very useful in planning a vacation in souther Spain.

This book was our second most used travel guide (of 3) during our recent trip to Portugal and Andalucia. Our favorite was Time Out (a relative judgment.) Fodor's gave a competent appraisal of the relevant tourist attractions- hardly a difficult task in Southern Spain (1. go to cathedral 2. go to bull ring 3. go to castle.) The restaurant recommendations were mostly useless- very dowdy and focused on traditional options. My thought is that Fodor's is focsued on an older crowd (wife and I are in low 30's.) I wouldn't recommend Fodor's, even though the specifity of a Andalucia focused guidebooks makes it superior to the Michelin Spain guide.
