Synopsis

Here is the latest book in the London Deco series. In this volume of the series, Ã¢â ¬Ëœ London Deco: Public and InstitutionalÃ¢â ¬â„¢, you will discover various types of Art Deco buildings in categories you might never have thought existed. Here you can find power generating stations, gas board buildings, town halls and churches, as well as horticultural halls, university buildings and libraries. This ebook, like the others in the series, is profusely illustrated with photographs that show the buildings and interesting details from them.Across the burgeoning centre and out through the the vast suburban ring that surrounds London there are things to see North, South, East and West. This volume also includes a few Art Deco buildings that have been repurposed, as well as one or two that no longer exist. The 'London Deco' series attempts to give a full picture of just how much there is still here. Explore the cityÃ¢â ¬â„¢s many Art Deco buildings in this new series being created by award winning author Gregory Edwards.
