Synopsis

This book is a historical novel based upon the life of Tiberius Caesar the 2nd Emperor of Rome. Except for the last chapter, people and events in the book are historically accurate. Tiberius lived at a crossroads in time for mankind. He witnessed and was part of the great shift from Roman democracy to the dictatorship of Emperors and Kings which would last for thousands of years into the future. He lived at the time of the very foundations of Christianity itself and was intimately connected with some of the characters of the New Testament stories. If Tiberius could speak today, what would he say about them? In a shocking twist, the final chapter of this book gives the answer. As foretold by the prophet Nostradamus, Tiberius will indeed one day rise up to speak again. Not all will be pleased with what he has to say.
