Customer Reviews

The map is fine and was marginally helpful on our recent trip. However, as other have commented previous on the Michelin maps - it is huge! Very difficult to manage in a car. Parts of the area covered are represented on both sides of the map, so that is confusing, too. Don’t know if I’ll use this style map again.

I lived in France for ten years. No one there would think of setting out on a new trip without the relevant Michelin map and corresponding Michelin Green Guide.

Great map. Excellent detail. Very large when fully unfolded.

The map is fantastic as it is with one caveat: if you are traveling extensively in France, you are money ahead to just buy the atlas. After I perused this and figured out how many more individual maps I would have to purchase to cover all of our trip, I was a bit frustrated.

We drove all over the Loire Valley using this map and never got lost once. Very easy to read and follow different types of roads in France. Would buy again.

This map is mislabeled. It is The Lower Loire Valley.

better than i expected. wiil see if you have anymore regions. nice detailed map

Michelin regional maps are the best. They’re great for exploring the back roads and bicycle touring as well.
