Text: English, Persian (translation) --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

This is a most interesting account of Jalal Al-e Ahmad's visit to Mecca. Al-e Ahmad is a really interesting figure, and - at least in this translation - an engaging writer, whose perspective reminded me in some ways of George Orwell's. There is a detail in observation, and a kind of skepticism, which is really attractive. The book is a classic, deserves much wider dissemination, and it is a real shame that it is currently out of print.
