Customer Reviews

Another first class Black Stallion book. I read my first one at 14 and I'm 69 and still reading Black Stallion books.

Loved this book....

Walter Farley has done it again in another classic book of the Black and Satan! If you love his stories about The Black Stallion, I would recommend reading this book.

The book is an exciting book full of energy, and you just can't help to be sucked up into it as yours read on.

Can the Black's son, Satan, the Triple Crown winner, outperform the greatest horses in the world in one international race? The answer comes down to whether or not the race will ever be run as a disease sends all the contenders to a farm for quarantine. When a forest fire puts all the contenders in jeopardy for their lives, it will take the fastest horse of them all to lead the way to safety. Is it the Black or his famous son, Satan? Read the book to find out--you'll love it!

Timeless story. Love it!

These books are thrilling. Can't lay them down. Being a horse lover I feel like I'm on the horses back that's how well the author has written these books!! Hats off to Walter Farley.

These are wonderful books for children and adults both.All of Walter Farley's are very entertaining.
