Synopsis

Do you want to be prepared when you receive a new puppy into your home? Do you want to know how to develop a friendly pup? Are you struggling to get your new pup trained? Do you wish you could teach your puppy to do tricks? When you are considering purchasing a high-energy ball of fluff for your home, you may not consider all the work that goes into teaching a new puppy how to behave. While puppy training can be difficult, it does not have to be! If you use the techniques taught in this book and properly train your pup on the first try, it be an amazingly smooth process. One of the biggest reasons that puppies end up in shelters or abandoned is because their owners simply do not expect the work that must go into training. They may not have time to train the pup or they may do it incorrectly. The problem with incorrect training is that you only have a clean slate with your puppy once and any negative interactions can affect their behavior permanently or cause bad behaviors that are incredibly difficult to undo. The good news is that while training a puppy can be difficult, it is nowhere near impossible. This book offers a step-by-step guide to teach you the proper way to train your puppy. While you may find there is more than one correct method to train a pup, others must be taught specifically in order to achieve long-term success. Some of the things you will learn in this book include: How to prepare your family for training your pup Teaching your pup to be gentle and allow veterinarians and groomers to handle him or her Training your pup on household rules Several methods of housebreaking your puppy Crate training Obedience commands How to care for your puppy How to teach your puppy to do tricks And more

Customer Reviews

This book is an exceptionally well written guide on dog training. I could immediately pick up from the tone and choice of words by the author that he loves dogs and has experience around them. The information is well researched and reaches out to owners of different dog breeds to cater for unique needs! This book helped me to see the problem deeper and taught me how to find the common language with my dog and taught her the basic commands and behavior. I am really very satisfied with the result I get. Highly recommend this book to all pet owners.

This complete guide is one of a kind. I have other puppy training books yet so different from this one. In the span of days to train is shorten which is good for me since I am working also. I know my son will love this guide and surely ill read page by page of it. Puppy training is very helpful book to many pet owners who find it hard to train their puppies.To have a good dog at home we must make sure to train them when they are still a puppy cause at early age they are very eager to learn and easy to guide. They can catch up easily too.

They say owning a puppy is almost the same as having a baby. It needs care, consideration, proper nourishment and guidance. Not to mention the vaccination and other veterinarian expenses. Since I was raised by my folks taking care of a dog in our home I donÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t care about what other says. I embraced one and got this book. These are all down to earth puppy training knowledge and I simply need to tail it consistently. If you are considering about getting a puppy or rescuing one read this book first. It might change the way you anticipate owning a puppy like what it did to me. I'm a more liberal, inviting pet proprietor now in light of the fact that if this book. It has farfetched great tricks and tips to become a perfect pet proprietor.

I am truly eager to see where my puppy will end up after she learned from adapting every one of the steps in this book. I don't need raise another puppy the old traditional routine in the wake of perusing this book. I can say that the authors are enthusiastic regarding their work and that they are paying special attention to the prosperity and satisfaction of puppies and proprietors alike. This book has methods for training puppies from the time they are brought home through youth and past. This book will help our dogs live up to our own definition of well behaved pets.

I see way too many people not able to value their dogs since they are diverted by behavioral issues. I preferred how this book manages with everything from standard conduct problems to serious animosity. This book has given me the knowledge and aptitudes that I need to have as a qualified owner of an upbeat, well behaved dog. The book additionally concentrates on making balanced associations with people and puppies through leadership, discipline, conduct modification, and socialization.

Spectacular! The book reveals to you what's in store on being a puppy proprietor all in all. I don't concur on spanking the puppy when they got into mischief and I for the most part concede to how the writers in this book present to prepare a puppy emphatically, similar to the reward framework. I have taken in the importance behind my pooch's non-verbal communication, brain science and how to perceive what she is considering doing as such i can enable her come to up with great choices.

Been preparing, working and breeding dogs for most of my life. I can state that this book provide effective and accessible puppy training methods and conduct information to puppy owners. Through this we can celebrate our togetherness in the strange, magnificent universe of puppies. This read will work with you and your puppy to enhance your puppy's conduct, hone his acquiescence and exercise him rationally and physically, all of which will fortify your relationship with your puppy.

The first thing you need to think about me is that I am passionate about keeping my puppy and taking care of her in my home. Finding this book was only a gift in light of the fact that the book has an objective of helping puppy proprietors worldwide to figure out how much fun and powerful training through games can be. IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ve attempted most of the tips I find applicable, and I am so glad it works. This book is here to enable you and your puppy to carry on with a lovely coexistence.
